

News from Okains Bay Māori & Colonial Museum

P: 03 304 8611 E: info@okainsbaymuseum.co.nz www.okainsbaymuseum.co.nz or like us on Facebook!

August 2017

At the AGM the Chair, Nigel Hampton Q.C., spoke of the Board's effective governance and sustainable management in the appointment of Ian Day as the first full-time Manager. Ian comes as an experienced and highly regarded museum professional.

Invitation to anyone willing to become part of the Museum's volunteer workforce, be it in the trades; engineering, electrical, plumbing, sign writing, archiving, Colonial, Maori artefacts, fund raising, marketing, education; working with schools, Facebook/website/computer expertise.

Would you like to be part of a team? You are invited to a meeting in October where all past volunteers will be also be invited to renew their association with the Museum in the next stage of growth. Contact Ian on 03 304 8611.

Graeme Duder

Donated frame & pram

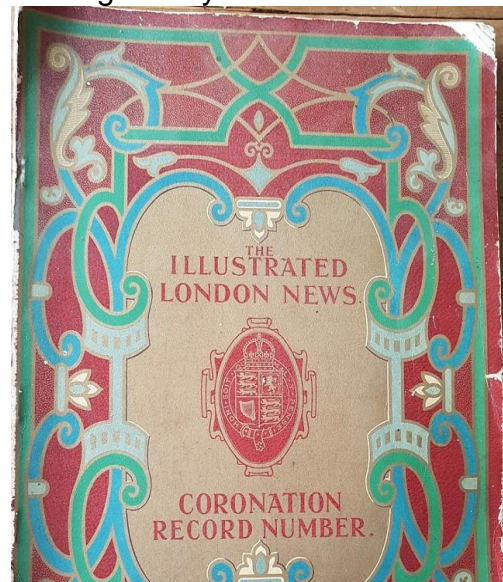

Our Print Shop expert, donating a photo frame and pram. Thanks to Graeme for also agreeing to care for museum's rare Printing Presses.

Many thanks to the Okains Bay local for donating a camera.

Illustrated London News – a, richly illustrated book published on the occasion of George V's Coronation on 6th May 1910. This book would have been a prized possession brought to New Zealand which explains why the books is in such good condition. It was an example of the use of the British Sovereign to publish souvenirs as in the Queen's Jubilee and royal weddings today.

Judy, Dominique, Delia and Celia Thacker organising the back office

Donations & subscriptions to: Account: 02 0832 0047258 00, BNZ Akaroa, Okains Bay Museum Trust.